VOL. V. NO. 134.

CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, JUNE 4-5, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

MONK WAYMAN'S GOOD RACE.

Harlem entertained another big crowd yesterday, fully 7,000 people being present to practically bake in the sun. The temporary grandstand was not near big enough to accommodate the crowd, and could give no more than two-thirds of them protection from the burning sun. This, however, did not interfere with the sport and little or no grumbling could be heard. The public is with the racing promoters to the limit and ready to stand any kind of inconvenience for the sake of witnessing good racing.

A handicap at one mile was the principle attraction, and that Secretary Nathanson has his eye on the gun in regard to allotting the weights was shown in the betting ring. Eight horses accepted the weights, and at one stage in the betting it was 4 to 1 and take your pick. Every horse was well backed. Braw Lad was cut from 5 to 1 down to 3 to 1 and Boney Boy from sixes to fours. Monk Wayman opened at 10 to 1 and receded to 15 to 1 and was then backed to 10 to 1.

It was a stirring race to look at. Mr. Dwyer sent the field away at the first attempt to a perfect start. Old Saugus and Boney Boy at once shot to the front and raced neck and neck to the half-mile ground. At this point Monk Wayman was sixth, but quicker than a flash he shot through the field, and passing the three-quarters he had a commanding lead of two lengths. From the head of the stretch the Monk increased his lead steadily and at the finish was easing up six lengths in front of Moroni. Myth was third, a neck in front of The Devil. So quickly did Monk Wayman shoot through the bunch and open up a gap that the crowd hardly realized that it was he. In the sun his colors looked much like the colors Old Saugus carried, and many thought it was the latter and not Monk Wayman in front.

Paul Miles has a good filly in Cheesestraw. She can carry weight and runs well in either the mud or on the dry. She was an even money favorite in the second race and won away off by herself. This filly has a habit of switching her tail at a terrific rate while running and this afforded great amusement for the crowd.

Opaque, who so easily disposed of Hobart and a fast lot the opening day, won another race for himself. He was in a soft spot in the third event and won fighting for his head and like a good racehorse. This racer is finely built, being by Iroquois-Ogarita, and is perhaps the largest horse in training at the track. Andes, who ran second, looked like a pony beside him.

The first and last races furnished the closest contests of the afternoon. Idle Hour and Mary Kinsella fought it out in the first, and the former, after the hardest kind of a drive, eventually won rather handily. Mary Kinsella, who pressed him hard from the head of the stretch, weakened badly at the end and Idle Hour was going away from her when the winning mark was passed.

Newgatherer seemed to be winning the last race easily at the eighth post, but got a sudden attack of the "quits," and Graziella, coming from the rear with a tremendous rush, put him to a hard drive and almost got up. Kamsin was an odds-on favorite for this race, but made a disgraceful showing and finished last.

The firm of Keene & Ryan at last broke their string of bad luck. They started First Past in the fifth race, and, after getting a flying start, heled by many lengths throughout and won as he pleased.

Jockey Caywood is very sick with malaria and will leave for his home in Iowa Monday. Frank Van Ness is a recent arrival. He has a big string and will race in Chicago all summer. One of his string, Highland Ball, a very useful performer in California, fell sick on the trip and died at the track last night.

LICENSES COME TOO EASY.

There is probably no license granted in any business calling that carries with it as little protection from unfair and incompetent competition as the papers granted by the Jockey Club to our trainers and riders. In most of the vocations of life wherein a license is necessary a certain proof of requisite knowledge is called for, a testimonial of fitness and competency is insisted upon, or a valuable bond must be filed as a guarantee of qualification for the work and a warranty for its proper performance. The only requisites to obtain such licenses the two specified, however, are the possession of a certain small sum to pay for their issuance, and the lack of any "black marks" of outlary or trickery to prevent an acceptance of the candidate. Stable cooks, boot blacks, deck hands, "any old thing," can secure papers and become forthwith a full-fledged professional, as is the fact in more cases than one today, while the unfortunate trainer, who has given his life and labor to the acquirement of practical knowledge of his duties, finds with dismay that the plausible talker who knows no more of his duties than the veriest tyro, is put in charge of race horses of more or less value, and the jockey of years of reputation and conscientious effort finds his occupation gone, the industry overcrowded, and himself forced to the wall by a raft of feather-headed kids, who are barely competent to gallop a horse. With the vast restriction in the racing field has not come a similar curtailment in the issuing of licenses, and it certainly seems that the men in the business are not accorded the protection that their allegiance to the Jockey Club, and their years of labor would entitle them to enjoy. Surely a license should mean more than a mere permission to train or ride, and surely there should be some credentials called for, some limit to the numbers, some general restrictions. Horsemen are prone to growl, and ever ready to find fault. With them, too often, whatever is, is wrong; but certainly trainers and jockeys seem to be hardly treated, and perhaps some limit would be put upon the evil did they properly and unanimously bring it to the attention of the proper authorities.—The Horse Fancier.

READY AT HAWTHORNE.

Secretary Harry Kuhl will issue the program for the first week's racing at Hawthorne Monday. The track and buildings are rapidly being put in order and will be spick and span when racing opens next Monday. Captain J. H. Rees will be the presiding judge and popular "Dick" Dwyer has been engaged to do the starting, a selection that will please local patrons of racing.

Word has been received that many of the best stables at St. Louis and Cincinnati will be headed for Chicago presently. Among them the stables of Burns & Waterhouse, Talbot Bros. with the crack John Bright, H. J. Scoggan and others equally well known.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

John Bright is evidently a superior four-year-old. His victory in the Club Members' Handicap at St. Louis yesterday was achieved in a way that puts him in the front rank of the best class of handicap horses. It seems unfortunate that he was not engaged in the big eastern events open to horses of his age.

May Hempstead's easy triumph in the Latonia Oaks will restore confidence in her title to the fame of being by far the best filly of her age in the west.

Winner—Ch. f. by Panique—Fanny Rogers.
Post 15 minutes. Start fair. The first five were doing their best. Nora S. came with a rush at the finish and snatched first place in the last stride. Samivel can do better. John Boone quit badly in the stretch and ran a bad race. Spree showed early speed. Winker pulled up lame. Sis Vic was almost left. The start was delayed by the bad actions of Norma Taylor.
Overweights—Lucy M., 24 pounds; John Boone, 4.
Nora S., place, 8 to 1; show, 4 to 1. Junaeita, place, 24 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Samivel, show, 7 to 10. John Boone, place, 7 to 10; show, 1 to 5.

Winner, Pharaoh.

Winner—B. c. by Hanover—Miss Winkle.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. The first two finished in a hard drive through the closing furlong. The difference in weight decided it in favor of Lamachus. Highland Lad showed improvement and ran a fairly good race. Summer was speedy for a half a mile but quit in the stretch. Pharaoh's race was hardly to the mark.
Overweights—Dissolute, 34 pounds; Pharaoh, 3.

Winner—Ch. f. by Troubadour—Mona.
Off at the first attempt to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Monadour was the best and is a good, consistent racehorse. In making her run at the three-furlong post there was some jostling and Bon Jour was thrown into the fence. Kriss Kringle was hard ridden all the way and whipped out in the stretch. The jostling hardly affected the result.
Scratched—12287 Prosecutor, 104; 12315 Vanessa, 104; 12232 Carl C, 103.
Monadour, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Kriss Kringle, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Bon Jour, show, 1 to 2. Eberhart, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. f. by Patron—Lillie Hempstead.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second easily. May Hempstead moved up at the half mile ground and passed Rush like a flash and won as she pleased. Turner eased up on her in the stretch and when Freak came after her let out a wrap and ran away from her. Rush acted badly at the post. She was beaten at the five-furlong pole. She appeared to be over-ran a fair race.
May Hempstead, place, out. Freak, place, 3 to 1; show, evens. Preliminary, show, evens. Rush, place, out.

Winner—Ch. h. by Spendthrift—Flutter.
Off at first break to a good start. Won cleverly at the end after a hard early drive; second and third were driving and all out. Idle Hour got a running start. He shut everyone else off on the first turn. King's Guard almost went down. This ruined whatever chance he had of winning. Clay rode a strong finish on the winner. At one time in the stretch it seemed as though Mary Kinsella would beat him, but Clay never gave up and punished Idle Hour unmercifully. Mary Kinsella hung when the pinch came. Vitatos probably made his run too soon. Isen ran a fair race. Uarda does not seem to be of any present account. A dry track suits her best.

Off at first break. Start fair. Won easily up; second and third were driving hard. Cheesestraw broke from behind flying and was really never extended. This is a good filly and especially fond of mud. Pan Jette ran a good race. She was badly interfered with shortly after the start but finished gamely under punishment. Hood's Brigade was slow to get on his stride and ran far below his notch. Inlook beat the barrier and made a fair showing. T. D. Rhoda showed quite a turn of speed. Watch him.

All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler), harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment. The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.
